

Grant of Rights for DOG on Demand

The German Society of Ophthalmology (DOG) intends to publicize the presentations of the DOG Congress via their partner M-Events Cross Media GmbH, Felix-Wankel-Str. 1, 82152 Krailling (herewith referred to as „M-Events“), in order for those interested and/or who were not able to attend in person, to be able to access the information. In order to do so, an on-line portal was created with the title „DOG on Demand“. Interested persons have the possibility to view the presentations during or after the congress via this portal. In order to cover the costs, a fee will most likely be charged to the users. Posters, videos, presentations, as well as the live lectures, including voice and video of the speaker will be shown.
